LCSWMA Acquires Way Delivery Services Property

LANCASTER, Pa. — The Lancaster County Solid Waste Management Authority (LCSWMA) is purchasing the property located at 1301 Harrisburg Pike, next to its Transfer Station Complex in Lancaster.

The property, 1.8 acres in size, is currently owned by Way Delivery Services. Purchase price is $1.2 million, with a sale date effective on January 1, 2012. The property currently houses Way Delivery Services, 1-800-GOT-JUNK, Adecco USA and the Lancaster Postal Employees Credit Union. LCSWMA will lease the property for all of 2012 and expects approximately $75,000 in lease payments.

LCSWMA's interest in the property is for future expansion. Details on the type of expansion are undefined at this time. According to James Warner, LCSWMA's CEO, "Any time contiguous properties become available, LCSWMA is always interested. We are happy to have come to an agreement with John Way."

###

LCSWMA is recognized nationally for its leadership in the industry and innovative approach to waste management. It's Integrated System consists of the following: (1) a Transfer Station permitted to handle up to 2,200 tons per day; (2) a 1,200 tons per day mass burn Waste-to-Energy Facility for the combustion of waste and production of electricity; (3) the Frey Farm Landfill, permitted for the disposal of 2,000 tons of waste per day; (4) a County-wide recycling program; and (5) a drive-through Household Hazardous Waste Facility. The Authority's mission is to manage solid waste and recyclable materials in an environmentally safe, reliable and efficient manner.
