Michael W. Brubaker Appointed to Board of Directors for LCSWMA

LANCASTER, Pa. —The Lancaster County Commissioners recently appointed Michael W. Brubaker to the nine-member Board of Directors for the Lancaster County Solid Waste Management Authority (LCSWMA).

Brubaker is Chief Executive Officer of Blackford Ventures LLC, located in Lancaster County. He holds extensive international business experience, in addition to significant relationships at the local, state and federal government levels. Brubaker is a former State Senator (2006-2014), having chaired the Senate Finance Committee and the International Relations Committee within the Council of State Governments organization; as well as served on the transition team for three governors. Brubaker also offers beneficial entrepreneurial experience, having previously owned and operated three companies.

“Mr. Brubaker brings an invaluable knowledge and familiarity of intergovernmental workings; as well as an extensive network of business relationships and a demonstrated ability to create positive change for the community,” says Jim Warner, Chief Executive Officer for LCSWMA. “His appointment to our Board of Directors illustrates the Lancaster County Commissioners’ continued prudence at selecting individuals with diverse expertise for governing the Authority with wisdom and excellence.”
